

Conference

Planning, a global political religion?

Université de Strasbourg / Sciences Po Strasbourg

September 23-24, 2021

Program

September 23

9.00 – 9.30 a.m: Emmanuel Droit (Strasbourg), Philipp Müller (Hamburg), Giovanni Bernardini (Verona):
Address of welcome and Introductive remarks

9.30 a.m. -1.00 p.m. - Panel 1: Interrogating Authoritarian Planning

Chair: Emmanuel Droit (Strasbourg)

Anna Catharina Hofmann (Halle) – „Liberal Democratic“ and „Authoritarian“ Planning? Economic Planning in France and Spain during the 1950s and the 1960s

Adam Rogoda (Warsaw) – Development Planning in Pre- and Post-Revolutionary Iran. Continuity or change?

Philipp Müller (Hamburg) – Portuguese Planning Phantasies. Modernizing the Empire and Approaching Europe

Katharina Kreuder-Sonnen (Vienna) – Complex Networks: Planning Knowledge on a GDR Construction Site in the late 1960s

2.30-5.30 p.m. - Panel 2: East and West in the Global and European South

Chair: Wolfgang Knöbl (Hamburg)

Emmanuel Droit (Strasbourg) – East German Experts Serving African Socialism. Planning in Egypt and Guinea During the 1960's

Heinrich Hartmann (Constance) - Planning Anatolian Rural Life. Transnational Expertise and Demographic Change in Turkey during the 1950s and 1960s.

Giovanni Bernardini (Verona) – Planning Comes to Italy? Planning Policies Under the First Center-Left Government Coalition of the 1960's

September 24

9.00 a.m. - 12.30 p.m. - Panel 3: International Settings of Planning

Chair: Philipp Müller (Hamburg)

Juri Auderset (Fribourg) – Between High Modernism and Low Modernism. On the Prospects and Deceptions of Planning in the Transnational Networks of Agricultural Economics, 1930-1965

Michel Christian (Lyon/Lahra) - Planning the World Industrialization? UNIDO and its "World Industry Model"

Elke Seefried (Aachen) – The Club of Rome and the Changing Conception of Global Planning

Hugo Canihac (Bruxelles) – Market Planning and the Impossible Emergence of European Economics (1957-1967)

1.00-1.30 p.m - Final discussion

Adress : Sciences Po Strasbourg , 7 rue de l'Ecarlate, 67082 Strasbourg,

Contact : droit@unistra.fr

Artist: Jorge Young

Sciences Po Strasbourg

École de l'Université de Strasbourg

Hamburger
Institut für
Sozialforschung

This conference has received funding from the European Union's Horizon 2020 research and innovation programme under the Marie Skłodowska-Curie grant agreement No 750887

